Rev. Adam Cichoski

Happy Epiphany! Also known as Three Kings Day, we celebrate the Magi coming to visit our newborn King. This is a special day in our communities, as the Polish and Hispanic cultures have beautiful traditions that continue to remind us of our past, while looking to the future. In Poland, Christmas Day begins the twelve-day Gody (Days of harmony and good will.) The evening of the Feast of the Three Kings is called szczodry wieczor, which means a bountiful or plentiful evening. On the Feast, the family takes blessed chalk, foil, and incense, marking the home with the initials of the Three Wise Men along with the year.

In Puerto Rico, preparations for the festivities begin just after Christmas day, and the days leading up to the Epiphany are filled with many celebrations and gatherings. In the evenings, friends and families gather in parrandas to sing and play traditional music around the neighborhood, stopping at neighboring homes to celebrate. On the eve of Three Kings Day, children leave a shoebox filled with straw, hay, or fresh-cut grass for the Magi's camels, placing the box either under the bed or somewhere where it can't be missed. Children wake up in the morning to find they've received small gifts or candy if they've been good, or charcoal or dirt if they've been naughty. The rest of the day is filled with parades, festivals, and celebrations. Families gather together and share a meal with some delicious dishes such as arroz con gandules, pernil, pasteles, and tembleque.

It is a beautiful way for us to celebrate who we are and how our cultures and surroundings continue to influence us in a positive way, helping us to remember the coming of the Magi and sharing the gifts we have with the world. The Epiphany celebrates the Magi's journey to worship Jesus. It represents the coming of Jesus to all – to Gentiles and Jews alike. The Magi saw the star from afar and traveled to worship the Christ Child. They brought him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh – each of which tells us something about Jesus' identity.

The gift of gold represents Jesus' kingship. This newborn King, came not in military power or authoritative strength, but came in innocence and peace. He seeks to rule with love, something that overcomes so many of the obstacles and challenges of this world. As the Magi seek our King, they meet King Herod, who is the complete opposite of what Jesus brings to the world. This threatens Herod, who seeks to destroy this life before it has a chance to bring the Light to all nations. Evil never wins, and we know that Christ's victory and kingship is affirmed as He reigns forever.

The frankincense represents Jesus' divinity; that Jesus is God and man, with two complete yet different natures. In the Old Testament, frankincense was traditionally burned in the temple as an offering to God (Leviticus 2:2). By bringing this gift, the Magi affirmed Jesus was no ordinary man; he is both fully man and fully God. Jesus walks with us and is the promise that God would come to His people to help scatter the darkness and lead them out of the captivity of sin.

The gift of myrrh foreshadows Jesus' death. Jesus comes into our world to bring us light and to save us. He saves us on the Cross, as His Death and Resurrection is the ultimate victory over sin and death. God gives us His Son because He loves us, and our King gives His life for us with that same love. We see in John 19:38-40 that Nicodemus brought myrrh at the time of Jesus' burial. In this way, the full story of Jesus' coming is revealed. Jesus was born so that we might have salvation. Through Jesus' death, we have eternal life.

The gifts of the Magi illuminate the different aspects of Christ's identity. He is king, he is God, and, in his marvelous grace, he died, so that we might live. As the Magi actively pursued Jesus, so too should we follow Christ without hesitation, letting him be our guiding star. May we search for Christ and find Him each day, knowing that He is here with us.

What are some ways we can celebrate our culture's traditions, while explaining the importance of them to our children and grandchildren in our lives of faith?

Weekly Quote
Pope Francis

“It is not enough to know where Jesus was born, as the scribes did, if we do not go there. It is not enough to know that Jesus was born, like Herod, if we do not encounter him. When his place becomes our place, when his time becomes our time, when his person becomes our life, then the prophecies come to fulfillment in us. Then Jesus is born within us. He becomes the living God for me. Today we are asked to imitate the Magi. They do not debate; they set out. They do not stop to look, but enter the house of Jesus. They do not put themselves at the center, but bow down before the One who is the center.”

Del Rector

¡Feliz Epifanía! También conocido como el Día de Reyes, celebramos a los Reyes Magos que vienen a visitar a nuestro Rey recién nacido. Este es un día especial en nuestras comunidades, ya que las culturas polaca e hispana tienen hermosas tradiciones que siguen recordándonos nuestro pasado, al mismo tiempo que miramos hacia el futuro. En Polonia, el día de Navidad comienza el Gody (Días de armonía y buena voluntad), que dura doce días. La noche de la Fiesta de los Reyes Magos se llama szczodry wieczor, que significa noche de abundancia. En la fiesta, la familia lleva tiza bendecida, papel de aluminio e incienso, y marca la casa con las iniciales de los Reyes Magos junto con el año.

En Puerto Rico, los preparativos para las fiestas comienzan justo después del día de Navidad, y los días previos a la Epifanía están llenos de celebraciones y reuniones. Por la noche, amigos y familias se reúnen en parrandas para cantar y tocar música tradicional por el barrio, parando en las casas vecinas para celebrar. La víspera de Reyes, los niños dejan una caja de zapatos llena de paja, heno o hierba recién cortada para los camellos de los Reyes Magos. Los niños se despiertan por la mañana y descubren que han recibido pequeños regalos o caramelos si se han portado bien, o carbón o tierra si se han portado mal. El resto del día está lleno de desfiles, festivales y celebraciones. Las familias se reúnen y comparten una comida con deliciosos platos de arroz con gandules, pernil, pasteles y tembleque.

Es una hermosa manera de celebrar quiénes somos y cómo nuestras culturas y entornos nos siguen influyendo de forma positiva. Nos ayuda a recordar la venida de los Reyes Magos y a compartir los dones que tenemos con el mundo. La Epifanía celebra el viaje de los Magos para adorar a Jesús. Los Magos vieron la estrella desde lejos y viajaron para adorar al Niño Jesús. Representa la venida de Jesús a todos: a gentiles y judíos por igual. Los Magos vieron la estrella desde lejos y viajaron para adorar al Niño Jesús. Le trajeron regalos de oro, incienso y mirra, cada uno de estos regalos nos habla algo sobre la identidad de Jesús.

El regalo de oro representa la realeza de Jesús. Este

Rey recién nacido, no vino con poder militar o fuerza autoritaria, sino con inocencia y paz. Él busca gobernar con amor, algo que supera muchos de los obstáculos y desafíos de este mundo. Cuando los Magos buscan a nuestro Rey, se encuentran con Rey Herodes, que es todo lo contrario de lo que Jesús trae al mundo. Esto amenaza el poder de Herodes, que busca destruir su vida antes de que tenga la oportunidad de llevar la Luz a todas las naciones. El mal nunca gana, y nosotros sabemos que la victoria y la realeza de Cristo se afirman al reinar para siempre.

El incienso representa la divinidad de Jesús; que Jesús es Dios y hombre, con dos naturalezas completas pero diferentes. En el Antiguo Testamento, el incienso se quemaba tradicionalmente en el templo como ofrenda a Dios. (Levítico 2:2). Al traer esta ofrenda, los Magos afirmaban que Jesús no era un hombre cualquiera, sino que era a la vez plenamente hombre y plenamente Dios. Jesús camina con nosotros y es la promesa de que Dios vendría a su pueblo para ayudar a dispersar las tinieblas y sacarlos del cautiverio del pecado.

El regalo de mirra prefigura la muerte de Jesús. Jesús viene a nuestro mundo para traernos la luz y salvarnos. Nos salva en la Cruz, pues su Muerte y Resurrección es la victoria definitiva sobre el pecado y la muerte. Dios nos da a su Hijo porque nos ama, y nuestro Rey da su vida por nosotros con ese mismo amor. Vemos en Juan 19:38-40 que Nicodemo trajo mirra en el momento de la sepultura de Jesús. De este modo, se revela la historia completa de la venida de Jesús. Jesús nació para que tuviéramos salvación. Por la muerte de Jesús, tenemos vida eterna.

Los dones de los Magos iluminan los distintos aspectos de la identidad de Cristo. Es rey, es Dios y, en su maravillosa Gracia murió para que nosotros tengamos vida. Como los Magos persiguieron activamente a Jesús, así también nosotros debemos seguir a Cristo sin vacilar, dejando que Él sea nuestra estrella guía. Que busquemos a Cristo y lo encontremos cada día, sabiendo que Él está aquí con nosotros. ¿De qué manera podemos celebrar las tradiciones de nuestra cultura y, al mismo tiempo, explicar a nuestros hijos y nietos la importancia que tienen en nuestra vida de fe?
